FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL (March 19, 1985)--The Eastern Illinois women's softball team (3-0) will journey this week down South to the glorious Palmette State of South Carolina for its spring training trip. The Lady Panthers will be stationed at the University of South Carolina for 10 days (Mar. 23-31). EIU will take on the likes of Seton Hall, Ohio University, Francis Marion College, South Carolina and Furman.

"I'm really looking forward in going down to South Carolina and playing some new teams," states fifth-year head coach Deanna D'Abbraccio. "The competition should be terrific . . . along with the weather. Our players are coming along and are beginning to gain more confidence in themselves everyday. As long as our pitching and hitting hold up, I think we will be all right.

"Our outfielders--especially Brenda Jackson (Lyons/Morton West) and Angel Lendvay (Mundelein)--have given us some strong defense. Brenda got to a couple of balls that I thought were doubles . . . and maybe triples . . . and held the runner to a single. Angel has displayed a good arm in left field."

Pitcher/designated hitter Shelly Eddington (Brighton/Southwestern) is one of the team leaders in the EIU attack. She sports an unblemished 2-0 record on the mound in two starts. Besides hurling the Lady Panthers to victory in the title game of the St. Louis Invitational, the talented senior drove in the first run of the game with a solo home run.

Junior infielder Tammi Rettig (Bloomington/Bloomington) leads the team in hitting with a .333 average. She also has a pair of RBI and a sacrifice to her credit.

Outfielders Kay Martin (Newton) and Jackson also garnered two hits a piece in the tourney. Martin had a double and triple plus an RBI while Jackson also had a double.

Another bright spot for Eastern was the pitching of freshman Zam Mogill (Streator). The much-ballyhooed hurler broke numerous national prep standards at Streator High School. She pitched the Lady Panthers to a 2-1 win over William Woods College in her collegiate debut. Mogil struck out 10 and didn't allow an earned run.
